Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope that the new year has started positively for you all. As the new term gets underway, we are currently reviewing the school's extra-curricular clubs. We are pleased to inform you that we have a new musical theatre club on Tuesdays. The children took part in taster sessions on Friday and the teachers said that it seemed to spark a high level of interest so please ask your children more about it. Flyers were distributed but if you require more information please contact the office team. The school is developing our approach to equal opportunities and understanding around racism and social injustice. Year 5 focused on Martin Luther King Jr Day, observed on January 20th and produced some thoughtful work based around this influential person. They reflected on the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., a leader who dedicated his life to promoting equality, justice, and nonviolent social change. His vision of a world free from racial discrimination and his commitment to unity. It was another opportunity to encourage our pupils to embrace kindness, fairness, and respect for others in their daily lives, carrying forward Dr. King's message of hope and progress. Please note our upcoming meeting for parents and carers of children with SEND. It is hoped that it will be a chance to share each other's experiences and find out a bit more about how to be supported. Kind regards,

S. Rowe
